WHAT I WANT TO GET OUT OF THE NETWORK:

- new ideas, approaches, contacts and cooperation opportunities;

WE ARE THE ORGANIZATION THAT:

- is a mature wood cluster organization with currently 160 member companies from the forest-based sector and from adjacent sectors (such as architecture, research, energy, mechanical engineering);
- has strategic business units covering four areas: qualification, innovation, internationalization, and site development along the entire wood value chain;
- is setting new standards regarding timber construction, novel wood applications and forest utilization, by bringing together stakeholders from business, research and administration initiating and leading joint international RTI projects providing research and innovation support to forest-based SMEs, promoting innovative thinking in the forest-based industries, supporting firms in their international efforts and market entry, developing human skills by offering dedicated forward-looking qualification courses capitalizing our strategic themes on international level;
